Statewide Ballot Propositions

Prop 51- YES – Repairs and upgrades schools, and relieves classroom overcrowding.

Prop 52- YES – Ensures continued access to Medi-Cal for children, seniors, the disabled, and more.

Prop 53- NO – Stop attack on the local control and infrastructure repairs our communities need.

Prop 54- NO – Don't give Special Interests the power to block needed and timely legislation on key issues facing California.

Prop 55- YES – Maintains tax rates on the wealthiest Californians to prevent $4 billion in cuts to public education.

Prop 56- YES – Increases cigarette tax by $2/pack to keep children from smoking, improve healthcare, and save lives.

Prop 57- YES – Authorizes parole consideration for nonviolent inmates for good behavior, education and rehab achievement.

Prop 58- YES – Helps students learn English without right-wing “English only” approach, and allows for all students to learn a second language.

Prop 59- YES – Asks lawmakers to overturn Citizen’s United and stop the flood of secret corporate money into our elections.

Prop 60- NO – This measure gives every person in California the authority to sue adult film performers and other workers, violates their privacy and reduces workplace safety.

Prop 61- YES – Help push back against pharmaceutical greed, and reign in excessive price increases of needed prescriptions.

Prop 62- YES – Will replace California’s outdated, costly, and failed death penalty system with life in prison without parole.

Prop 63- YES – The “Safety for All Act” will keep our communities safe with common sense laws to curb gun violence and help stop the wave of illegal guns in our community.

Prop 64- YES – Controls, regulates, and taxes adult use of marijuana, ends criminalization of responsible adult use, allows people with past marijuana records to have them cleared or reduced.

Prop 65- NO – Revenue from carry-out bags would go into a new dedicated State fund.

Prop 66- NO – Increases risk that California executes an innocent person.

Prop 67- YES – Protects our state ban on plastic grocery bags, reducing plastic pollution, protecting wildlife and the ocean.

Judicial Election – Alameda County

Scott Jackson for Judge. Jackson will protect access to justice, the courts, and public services for all.

And remember to vote Rebecca Kaplan as your number 1 choice for Oakland City Council, At-Large
